Committee Name:

Representative to the Library Society of China

Committee Roster:

Michael Huang

Committee Charge:

- Represent CALA as an organization to the Library Society of China (LSC).
- Report news and initiatives of CALA to LSC.
- Share news, activities, programs, and major conferences of LSC to CALA members and leaders.

Task Completed According to the Five Goals Outlined in the CALA 2015 Strategic Plan if Applicable and Please Be Specific:

Michael Huang organized a CALA delegation with seven members and attended 2014 Chinese Library Annual conference held in Beijing, China, October 9-11, 2014. The delegation presented an academic session titled "The Librarian in the Transitional Time: Exploration and Practice in Academic Libraries in the United States." About 200 people participated in the CALA session. Michael Huang, Coordinator of the Office of Global Library Initiatives at Stony Brook University served as organizer and chair of the CALA session.

The presenters' names and titles are listed as follows:

Embedded librarian in academic libraries: An emerging role in the transitional time

Jianye He, Librarian for Chinese Collections, C.V. Starr East Asian Library, University of California, Berkeley

The embedded librarian: Collaborating with faculty in teaching and publication

Judy Xiao, Associate Professor, College of Staten Island, the City University of New York

Anthropological approach to librarianship: Ethnographic methods used in library research

Andrew Yanqing Lee, Humanities & Social Sciences Librarian, George Mason University

New space and new experience: From library to learning commons

Miao Hong, Research Librarian, Marywood University

The new challenges to academic libraries in management and subscriptions of online e-journals

Tian Xiao Zhang, Head of Serials Department/Associate Professor, St. John's University Library

Space as a service and the transition from print to digital collections: The Hong Kong Baptist University Library experience

Clement Lau, Associate Librarian, Technical and Collection Services, Hong Kong Baptist University Library
